

Privacy Notice for Homelessness Services

We are a local housing authority with a legal obligation to take action to prevent homelessness and provide assistance to people threatened with or actually homeless.

Most of the personal information we hold about you is provided by you. The information collected and held will vary and depend on the nature of the service. If you choose not to provide us with the information we ask for, in many cases, we will not be able to provide you with the homelessness service.

Processing activity - we will process personal information relating to:

- applications for housing assistance
- inquiries as to whether any duty is owed under Part 7 Housing Act 1996
- assessments
- complaints
- advice and information
- call recording
- general correspondence between you and us on matters related to our homelessness services

Information requirements - our processing activities may include:

- your name
- address
- nationality
- date of birth
- unique identifiers (such as National Insurance Number)
- signature(s)
- Kent Homechoice number(s)
- change of circumstance details
- medical and welfare details
- Section 21 Assured Shorthold Tenancy notice(s)

Lawful bases - our lawful bases for processing your personal information are:

- consent
- our legal obligations under Part 7 Housing Act 1996
- our legal obligation(s) under the Homelessness (Suitability of Accommodation) (England) Order 2003
- our legal obligation (s) under the Homelessness Reduction Act 2017
- our legal obligation(s) under the Digital Economy Act 2017
- necessary for the performance of a task in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in us under the above legislation:

Reasons for processing - some of the information that is collected and shared is classified as:

- special category personal data;
- criminal convictions and offences (including alleged offences).

This is processed for reasons of substantial public interest under the laws that apply to us (see above) where this helps to meet our broader social obligations such as where it is necessary for us to fulfil our legal obligations and regulatory requirements. We have a Data Protection Policy that sets out how this information will be handled.

Please refer to the Kent & Medway Information Agreement for further details on our sharing arrangements.

Retention period

We keep your personal information for the minimum period necessary. All information will be held securely and disposed of confidentially, for more information on retention please view our Corporate Privacy Notice.

Anonymization

Your personal information may be converted ('anonymised') into statistical or aggregated data in such a way that ensures that you cannot be identified from it. Aggregated data cannot, by definition, be linked back to you as an individual and may be used to conduct research and analysis, including the preparation of statistics for use in our reports.

Right to object

Where processing your personal information is required for the performance of a public interest task (see our lawful bases above), you have the right to object on 'grounds relating to your particular situation'. We will have to demonstrate why it is appropriate for us to continue to use your personal data.

Changes to this Privacy Notice

We review this Privacy Notice regularly and will place updates on our website. Please refer to our Corporate Privacy Notice for further details of how we process your personal information and for details on your additional rights.
